The Earnings per share (EPS) has decreased to ₹18.20/- as against ₹24.50/- in the previous year.

POWER SECTOR OVERVIEW

India has an installed generation capacity of 267 GW as on 31st March 2015. Generation capacity in the country has been steadily increasing, driven by fresh investments by private players, attracted by a combination of factors such as growing demand for power in tandem with economic growth and creation of a vibrant power market that provides price signals for trading of merchant power. India's generating capacity comprises of 164 GW of coal based capacity, 23 GW of gas based capacity, 41 GW of Hydro capacity, 31 GW of renewable capacity and about 6 GW of nuclear capacity.

In order to meet the increasing demand of power, the Government of India has announced a capacity addition target of 88,537 MW in the XII plan (2013–17). The private sector is expected to add about 53% of this capacity. 22566 MW of generation capacity was added during FY 15 exceeding the target of 17830 MW.

The transmission sector plays an important role in the present power scenario which is characterized by geographical and seasonal diversity factors impacting demand and supply situation by facilitating transfer of power where required. In India, generation and transmission sectors as electricity is treated as concurrent subject. The Indian Power Transmission System is one of the largest integrated electricity transmission networks in the world. Inter-state transmission system (ISTS) in India is continuously expanding with current Inter - Regional Transmission capacity in excess of 46,450 MW. The national transmission grid system is divided into five regional grids i.e. North, East, West, South and the North-east. All the grids are frequency synchronized with commissioning of 765kV S/c Raichur - Sholapur line on 31st December, 2013 creating a single National Grid. The inter-regional power transfer capacity is envisaged to be augmented to about 72,250MW by the end of the XII Plan (2016-17). Southern Region beneficiaries are currently facing acute shortage of power due to corridor constraint in import of power resulting in market splitting and higher prices.

Power Supply position in the country has generally improved during FY 2014-15. The gap between requirement and availability of energy reduced from 3.6% during March 2014 to 2.1% during March 2015 and from 4.2% during FY 2014 to 3.6% during FY 2014-15. The gap between peak demand and supply also reduced from 4.7% during March 2014 to 3.2% during March, 2015.

For improving quality of the power system operation and enhancing security of the national electricity grid, Ministry of Power has already approved total five number of schemes submitted by Kerala, West Bengal, Rajasthan and Powergrid and sanctioned a grant of ₹ 618 Crore from Power System Development Fund (PSDF) for execution thereof. Eight more such schemes with an overall estimated cost of about ₹ 1,161 Crore submitted by the states of Assam, Karnataka, Nagaland, Odisha, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh (2 schemes) and Gujarat have been approved by the Ministry of Power in March, 2015 and sanctioned grant of about ₹ 803 Crore therefore from PSDF. Sanctioned grant will be released in phases based on achievement of prescribed milestones during execution of the schemes. Above projects will contribute to easing transmission constraints to a significant degree.

Electricity traded in the short term power market during FY 2014-15 was 98.98 BUs, 9.48% of total generation; comprising of 4.87% through Bilateral, 2.72% through power exchanges and 1.86% through Unschedule Interchange. There is decline in the volume of short term power market from FY 2014 to FY 2015 by 5.37%. Due to stringent deviation settlement mechanism imposed by Regional Load Despatch Center share of UI market has reduced significantly by 9.40%. In the next year both short term bilateral sale and power exchange Day Ahead Market (DAM) transactions segments are expected to grow at slow pace. the company is expected to consolidate its position as one of market leaders in both the segments.

While the outlook for power trading is bright in the long term, the sector is currently facing several challenges such as #### a. Poor Financial health of Discoms:

Although several states have raised tariffs in the last few years, the financial condition of several distribution entities still remains a matter of concern. Improvement in financial health of Discoms would be crucial to power trading market development. Procurement by discoms on the Case-I route is not progressing as envisaged, due to poor financial condition of the distribution entities. Merchant prices are also dampened as load-shedding is preferred by the discoms against supplying unmeant demand of its customers.

b. Lower trading Margins:

The competition has grown fierce due to an increase in the number of CERC licensed traders. Due to this, trading margins are under immense downward pressure.

c. Transmission Constraints:

Power trading was also adversely affected by continued corridor constraints for power flow from ER and WR to SR leading to prevalence of high prices for the customers in the Southern states. During the year, corridor constraints also cropped for power flow from ER and W3 which led to stranding of significant generating capacities in the W3 sub-region. During the monsoon period, constraint is also seen to emerge for power flow to NR.

d. Fuel price risk:

There is an obligation on the Discoms for competitive bidding through Case I or Case II route for power procurement. Such procurement is not progressing as envisaged earlier, since the sellers are unwilling to take fuel price risks and would like it to be built into the tariff. Short term transactions are also becoming unviable with uncertainty on the availability of fuel to generators for sale of power in merchant market.

Lack of regulatory clarity for trading of imported power

Although Government of India (GoI) has shifted the subject of import of power from restricted category to free category, existing regulation lack clarity with regard to allowing sale of imported power in power exchange by traders like the company. Your Company is the only trader company who is importing power from Bhutan for sale on short term bilateral. The Company has also filed petition in CERC for allowing the cross-border import of power through power exchange. Considering that India is envisaging import of larger quantum of power from neighbouring countries such as Bhutan and Nepal over long term it is critical to have appropriate regulatory framework in place to facilitate trading of imported power.

f. Traders not being allowed to participate in Case-I bidding

Ministry of Power has revised the norms for competitive bidding process to be followed by Discoms for purchasing power on long term and medium term basis. According to the new norms, power traders are no longer allowed to participate in Case-I bids. This approach is bound to result in lesser competition in the bidding process.

g. Open access not growing:

The unwillingness of Discoms to allow open access to their consumers, in spite of facilitative provisions in Electricity Act, 2003, is acting as a major barrier to further growth and competition in the power trading sector. Growth in power trading can accelerate even further if the transmission corridor constraints, restrictive open access regime being followed in various states, excessive levels of cross subsidy charge are mitigated and do not hamper customer's desire to avail open access power.

One of the main thrust of the amendments is to separate the carriage and content business in distribution sector and have two licensees: Distribution Licensee who will own the lines and Supply Licensee who will be responsible for supply of electricity to the consumers The following are some of the important regulatory changes in FY2014-15:
- CERC issued its order on 11th September, 2014, notifying an interim arrangement enabling power to be imported from Dagachhu Hydro Power Corporation. The project was commissioned in February, 2015. Your company is importing power from the project and selling it bilaterally to customers under short term contracts. However, your company is not being allowed to sell Dagachhu power in power exchanges. Your company has filed a petition with CERC on 20th February, 2015 for allowing sale of Dagachhu power on power exchanges. First hearing was conducted on 12th March, 2015 wherein CERC directed respondents (NLDC and others) to file their replies. The replies were filed on 27th March, 2015 and the final hearing was conducted on 5th May, 2015. CERC has reserved its order in the case.
- The Electricity (Amendment) Bill, 2014 was introduced in Lok Sabha on 19th December, 2014. - CERC has issued draft regulations on Ancillary Services Operations and solicited comments from the stakeholders. The regulations propose to identify capacities which can respond for ensuring grid stability. Your Company has communicated its views and suggestions.
- CERC has issued the draft regulations, where in the renewable sources would be required to schedule their generation. Any deviations from the schedule generation will be penalized. Your Company has submitted its comments on the proposal, stating that the forecasting should be the responsibility of a central agency and any deviation should only be penalized if it is against the forecast of the central agency.
- Central Electricity Regulatory Commission has issued (Sharing of Inter State Transmission Charges and Losses) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2015 which was to be effective from 01st May, 2015. Charge.
